Eric Stasiowski
Director – Communications, North America

Eric Stasiowski is the director of communications for PPG's North American Decorative Paints business, a division of Dutch-based coatings and chemical giant, PPG.

Stasiowski joined the company in 2009 and is responsible for internal and external communications strategy for the company and its portfolio of 11 consumer and business-to-business paint and coatings brands. His scope of responsibilities includes media relations, community outreach and sponsorships, government relations, crisis communications as well as providing counsel to internal stakeholders to advance the company's culture and employee engagement.

Prior to joining PPG, Stasiowski held several corporate communications, advertising and brand management responsibilities in the manufacturing and newspaper industries. Most recently, he was the senior manager of corporate communications at The Timken Company in Canton, Ohio where he was responsible for communications within the bearing and steel manufacturer's global Industrial Business.

Eric Stasiowski holds a Bachelor of Science in Communications from Ithaca (NY) College and a Masters in Business Administration from The Penn State University.

He currently serves as a Trustee of the Highland Foundation and is Past Chairman of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Festival's Grand Parade. He and his wife, Donna, and their daughter, Hannah, reside in Medina, Ohio.

About Glidden
The Glidden® Paint brand offers a rich tradition of innovation and color inspiration, having consistently embodied quality and performance for generations of customers. From the first latex paints that were developed and marketed under the Glidden brand decades ago, to today's broad assortment of versatile paints, Glidden makes it easy for consumers and paint contractors alike to turn inspiration into action and add color to people's lives. Available nationwide at The Home Depot, Walmart, company-owned Glidden Professional Paint Centers and other fine retailers, Glidden Paint is a brand of AkzoNobel, the world's largest paint and coatings company.
